New Jersey Company Takes

Over the Ocean Steamships.

In line with the action of the Standard itself of its interest in more than thirty companies which were formerly its subsidiaries, it has now been decided to divide the water transportation organization, which includes a large fleet of ocean stramships. The Standard Oil Company of New Jersey is to take over the oceancarrying organization, which controls the steamships engaged in the transportation of oil to Europe and to the Orient; and the Standard Oil Company of New York will assume ownership and control of the lighterage and coastwise shipping busi-

CORONER SCORES POLICE

Gaynor Gave Them Magistrates' Powers, According to Feinberg.

Coroner Feinberg scored the police yesterday before a jury in the inquest into the death of Nathan Swartz, the murderer of Julia Conners, who killed himself in a tenement house at No. 219 Chrystie street. He denounced them for not finding the murderer, who had stayed in the East Side twelve days working at various places while under the charge of murder, and criticised Mayor Gaynor for giving to the police what Dr. Feinberg calls the power of a magistrate in deciding whether or not they should arrest an individual after a fatal accident. "The learned Mayor of this town," said

Coroner Feinberg, "has allowed the police
